Enabling you to lead with confidence and make smart decisions while we handle the rest.

The strategic backbone of your learning & development strategy

Unlock benefits through audience and automation

Reduce manual administration and automatically assign learning to groups or individuals by role, team, skills, and more.

Elevate compliance and training management

Build a culture of safety, minimize business risks, and promote a safer environment for your workforce.

Simplified access via OAuth2 single sign-on Seamlessly access learning using Microsoft, Google, or Facebook credentials, minimizing technical barriers.

Learning on the move with the mobile training app

Create an always-on learning environment with our customizable mobile app, making learning, training, and compliance accessible anywhere.

Multitenancy and extended enterprise

Expand your LMS to cater to multiple audiences or customers from a single LMS instance. Simplify administration with branded, user environments.

Empowering learning through live events and seminars

Enable online and offline learning events that foster collaboration through centrally organized blended learning sessions.

Branded your way

Use your brand to deliver an instantly recognizable, cohesive user experience throughout your LMS.

Validate learning with assessments and certifications

Evidence progress and completion, ensuring compliance is always front of mind.

Informed decision-making with Kineo Analytics

Access a suite of analytics and reporting tools that help you measure the effectiveness of your learning and continuously improve and tailor you're training to achieve better results.
